

Danielle Markson

Danielle is a fiduciary administrator in the firm's Trust and Estate Department. She provides support for the administration of estates and trusts and fiduciary tax reporting. Her work includes preparing probate documents, managing the administration of estate or trust accounts, coordinating with specialists for the valuation of estate assets, and assisting with the preparation of federal and state estate tax returns. Danielle previously worked as a legal assistant, executive assistant, production coordinator and project manager.

Education

Brown University

Other Distinctions

Notary Public, State of New York