

Government Contracts

Schnader's Government Contracts attorneys are experienced with a broad spectrum of contracts involving government entities, and many have first-hand experience as former government executives and lawyers. We can assist in the formation and administration of such public-private arrangements, and we can advise and advocate when disputes arise. We work with local, state and federal government agencies and with domestic and foreign business organizations.

Public-Private Contracting

Our representation at the contract formation stage includes counseling on the terms and conditions of procurement processes; assistance in preparing bids and proposals; structuring new entities when appropriate; assisting and guiding with various regulatory approvals; reviewing insurance and indemnification; negotiating and documenting contracts, leases, and financing documents; negotiation and drafting plans and agreements involving critical stakeholder interests; and advising on communications related to government contracting.

Examples of the types of projects with which our attorneys are experienced include:

- Real Estate Development
- Transportation and Infrastructure
- Energy
- Municipal, County and State Services
- Municipal Utilities
- Child Welfare
- Education
- Investments
- Concessions

- Sports & Entertainment Venues
- Airports & Aviation
- Engineering & Architecture
- Construction

Dispute Resolution

In the area of dispute resolution, we represent clients in appeals before agency boards of contract appeals; lawsuits in the U.S. Court of Federal Claims and appeals before the Federal Circuit, as well as other federal, state and local courts; in arbitration proceedings; and in informal alternative dispute resolution proceedings. Recent matters have involved clients in the transportation and advertising industries, telecommunications and medical fields, and in jurisprudence.

Examples of the types of government contract disputes with which our attorneys are experienced include:

- Bid Protests
- Indemnification and Insurance Claims
- Compliance Audits
- Warranty Claims
- Suspension and Debarment Actions
- Ethics Investigations
- Terminations for Convenience and Default
- Disputes and Appeals
- Procurement Fraud Investigations and Claims
- Inspector general investigations

Construction

In the construction area, we have handled matters pertaining to light construction (residential housing and commercial stores), medium construction (shopping centers and office and apartment buildings), specialty construction (power plants, hospitals, sewage treatment facilities and renovation of historic buildings) and heavy construction (dams, bridges and subway systems).

Range of Experience

Our government contracts lawyers provide a unique range of experience and are nationally recognized lecturers, authors and authorities in this area of the law. They have had experience in both the public and private sectors.

For further information concerning Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis' Government Contracts Group, please contact the group's chair.

Contacts

Samuel W. Silver - Chair

215-751-2309