Office: Philadelphia, PA

Phone Number: 215-751-2525

Joseph E. Lundy has developed a stellar national reputation in matters involving exempt organizations. To this practice, he brings over 40 years of experience as a tax attorney and business advisor, focusing on exempt organizations. Mr. Lundy has hands-on experience in advising healthcare systems, universities, colleges, foundations and other nationally prominent charities throughout the country regarding IRS audits, mergers and acquisitions, restructuring, tax-exempt financing, unrelated business income, and physician practice arrangements as well as fundraising and general compliance matters.

Prior to joining Schnader, Mr. Lundy was a founding partner of Lundy Fleming LLP, a partnership devoted to the legal representation of nonprofit organizations, closely-held businesses and individuals. He was also a principal in the Washington, D.C., New York, and Philadelphia offices of the international accounting and consulting firm PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. Serving as a leader in the firm's Washington National Tax Services healthcare, higher education, private foundation and other exempt organization tax practice, he was responsible for providing innovative and proactive solutions regarding tax laws and other regulatory matters applicable to exempt organizations. Mr. Lundy was also a partner of the Philadelphia-based law firm Ballard Spahr Andrews & Ingersoll, LLP.
